

Rocky Mountain Peace and Justice Center

Nuclear Guardianship Internship

RMPJC Mission Statement

Rooted in the spirit of unconditional nonviolence, the Rocky Mountain Peace and Justice Center is dedicated to progressive personal and social change. We are a multi-issue organization that works to restore and protect Earth and human rights. We educate, organize, act and build community in order to create a culture of justice and peace.

Internship Description

We are looking for a motivated Nuclear Guardianship Intern to join an important grassroots campaign. The goals for this campaign include nuclear nonproliferation and protecting public health from weapons production in the past. This internship will include learning opportunities regarding the U.S. nuclear weapons complex, especially Rocky Flats, a former nuclear weapons plant 16 miles Northwest of Denver. The intern's responsibilities include attending weekly meetings and a trip to Washington DC in the Spring of 2020. We'll attend a conference called DC Days with the Alliance for Nuclear Accountability and meet with experienced activists from around the nation. This is an opportunity to gain valuable experience in the field of grassroots organizing, coalition and alliance building, non-profit organizations, and political lobbying.

The Intern will be performing the following tasks:

- ❖ Attend weekly lunch meetings, Tuesday 12-2pm in North Boulder
- ❖ Attend DC Days with the Alliance for Nuclear Accountability in Spring 2020 (travel expenses covered by RMPJC)
- ❖ Share awareness about events regarding Rocky Flats Nuclear Guardianship
- ❖ Communication with student groups and clubs
- ❖ Communication with radio stations and newspapers (optional)
- ❖ Team-building with universities, people at RMPJC, staff, volunteers, and other interns
- ❖ Write a reflection paper about what you learned during the internship

Requirements

- ❖ Excellent communication skills
- ❖ Awareness of clubs and student groups at CU Boulder and/or Naropa University
- ❖ Familiarity with coalition and alliance building
- ❖ Organizational skills
- ❖ Creativity, resourcefulness, and teamwork
- ❖ Passion for environmental and social justice issues in a framework of nonviolent education and action

Compensation

This is a volunteer unpaid internship, 5-10 hours per week. We encourage you to use this internship to gain course credit, if that is an option. Travel expenses to Washington DC (including food, housing, and airfare) will be covered by RMPJC.

Application

To apply, please send a coverletter and resume to rmpjcapplcations@gmail.com
Thank you and looking forward to hearing from you!